

Religious Education Committee Report

Sunday, October 5, 2014

The Religious Education Committee met on Sunday, October 5.

The Committee worked with Christina on an RE programming plan through December:

- Two Sundays a month: Christina and Joe will lead lessons drawn from the UUA's Tapestry of Faith curricula.
- One Sunday a month: Kelsang Jamkar will lead the kids in guided meditation.
- Remaining Sundays may include:
 - Yoga instruction (instructor TBD)
 - Environmental project (in cooperation with the Green Sanctuary committee)
 - Beautification project (in cooperation with the Buildings & Grounds committee)
 - Social action project (in cooperation with the Social Justice committee)

The focus will be on activity-based lessons that appeal to multiple age groups, reflecting the make-up of our current enrollment.

The Committee also discussed plans for several upcoming events:

- Sunday, October 26: Pumpkin carving / party after service
- Sunday, November 2: Intergenerational worship service
- Sunday, December 7: Meet and Greet Breakfast before service
- Friday, December 12: Parents' Night Out
